

Sins of the Flesh that lead to Damnation!

For more information, email:
TryCatholic@aol.com
by William J. DeTucci
© 2004 A.D.

Dedicated to the Five Wounds of Christ.

Fr. Michael Müller [Mueller] C.SSR. (1825-1899)
writes:

“Some years ago a gentleman of rank and education forgot himself so far as to keep in his house a young woman of loose character. His friends, his relatives, and even the priest of God, advised and begged him again and again to give up that wicked girl. But it was all in vain. His only answer was: I cannot, I cannot. At last he fell sick, and his illness became so dangerous that he was at the point of death. The good priest now came to see him. He saluted the dying man, and spoke kindly to him, in order to win his confidence. “My dear friend,” said the priest, “your illness is dangerous, it is true, but you are young yet, you have a strong constitution, and we hope that you will recover. But, at all events, it would do you no harm to make your peace with God like a good Christian.” “Ah ! father,” said the dying man, “I know that I am in great danger. It is true, I have led a very wicked life, but I now wish to amend. I wish to die a good death. Tell me, then, what I must do.” The priest was overjoyed to see him in such a good disposition. “Well,” said the priest, “since you desire to die a good death, you must prepare yourself by a good confession.” “Oh ! most willingly,” was the reply. “Are there any debts that you have not paid?” asked the priest before he commenced to hear his confession. “I have paid them all,” answered the sick man. “Have you never defrauded your neighbor or injured him in his good name or property?” “Yes, but I have made restitution.” “Have you no ill-will against any of your neighbors?” “Yes, I humbly ask pardon.” “Do you wish then, to receive the last sacraments?” “I desire it with all my heart.” “Well, then,” said the priest, “since you desire to receive the last sacraments, you know you must put away every obstacle to the grace of God—you must send away this wicked girl from your house; she is a constant occasion of sin to you still. You must send her away.” “O father!” said the dying man, “what do you mean? Send away that girl! Oh! I cannot do that.” “But you are at the point of death. In a few moments more you will be forced to leave her. Why not send her away now of your own free will?” “I cannot do it, indeed I cannot.” “Oh!” cried the priest, drawing forth his crucifix, “look at this crucifix. Our Redeemer, your Lord, suffered and died for you. He shed His heart’s blood for you. Will you not make this slight sacrifice to please Him? Oh! Look upon His wounds; see His blessed head crowned with thorns—can you refuse Him? For the love of Jesus, have pity on your poor soul. Will you not send away that wicked woman, at least for the love of Jesus Christ?” “Father, I have told you already that I cannot do it.” “But if you do not send her away, I cannot give you the sacraments.” “No matter, I cannot do it.” “You will be excluded from the kingdom of heaven.” “Well, I cannot help it.” “You will die excommunicated; you cannot be buried in consecrated ground, you will be thrown aside like a dog, or an abortion!” “I cannot help it.” “But you will be condemned to the everlasting flames of hell.” “Well, I cannot help it.” “In the name of God, be reasonable. It is not better to send away this wicked woman than to lose soul and body, heaven, and God Himself?” “I cannot send her away.” The dying man then beckoned to the wretched woman, who was standing at some distance from him, and wept. As soon as she drew near, he threw his arms around her neck, and, in a voice which trembled with weakness and passion, he cried: “Ah! you have been my joy during life, you shall be my joy in death and throughout all eternity.” These were his last words. In that same instant he breathed forth his soul, and died in the very act of sin. Oh! how difficult it is for a person who has contracted the habit of this vice to amend his life and return sincerely to God! How difficult it is for him not to put an end to this habit in hell, like the unfortunate man whom I have just spoken” (Taken from: The Sinner’s Return to God, Tan Books [1897] 1983, Rockford, Illinois, USA).

“Fly fornication [premarital sex]. Every sin that a man doth, is without the body; but he that comitteth fornication, sinneth against his own body” (1:Cor. 6:18).

Once, when St. John Vianney (1786-1859 A.D.) was preaching to a crowd one day, a man yelled out to the Saint, “I do not believe in Hell.” St. John Vianney replied: “You will believe it when you get there!” To this astonishment the man feared and bothered the Saint no more.

Pope Pius XI (1922-1939) definitely teaches: “Since, therefore, the conjugal act [of marriage] is destined primarily by nature for the begetting of children, those who in exercising it deliberately frustrate its natural power [by birth control pills, masturbation, sterilization] and purpose sin against nature and commit a deed which is shameful and intrinsically vicious [evil]” (Papal Encyclical Casti Connubii, Article 54, Dec. 31, 1930).

Holy Bible: “A woman shall not be clothed with man’s apparel [pants], neither shall a man use woman’s apparel: for he that doeth these things is abominable [sinful and wicked] before God” (Deut. 22:5).

St. Augustine of Hippo (354-430 A.D.) writes:

“Sins against nature, therefore, like the sin of Sodom, are abominable and deserve punishment whenever and wherever they are committed.” (Confessions, Book III, chap. 8).

God created Adam and Eve “not” Adam and Steve!

Pope Leo XIII (1878-1903) declares:

“As Our predecessors [previous popes] have many times repeated, let no man think that he may for any reason whatsoever join the Masonic sect, if he values his Catholic name and his eternal salvation as he ought to value them. Let no one be deceived by a pretense of honesty. It may seem to some that Freemasons demand nothing that is openly contrary to religion and morality; but, as the whole principle and object of the sect lies in what is vicious and criminal, to join these men or in any way help them cannot be lawful” (Papal Encyclical Humanum Genus, Article 31, April 20, 1884).

Fr. Michael Muller (1825-1899 A.D.) writes: “One day, the Fathers of the Mission of St. Vincent gave a retreat in their house at Florence [Italy] to a gentleman who had lived in criminal intercourse with a lady, who died before making her peace with God. While this gentleman, in the bitterness of his repentance, was imploring the Divine Mercy for the companion of his guilt, she appeared to him, and said: “Do not pray for me, I am damned”; after which, to convince him of the reality of her apparition, she placed her hand on the table before which he was kneeling in prayer, and the part which she touched received the burnt impress of her hand. This table is still preserved in Naples [Italy]” (Taken from: The Sinner’s Return to God, Tan Books, [1897] 1983, Rockford, Illinois, USA).

St. Robert Bellarmine (1542-1621 A.D.) in a sermon in Belgium, in 1574, states: “The dungeon of Hell shall remain for as long as the Kingdom of Heaven exists. The damned shall be tortured for as long as the blessed shall rejoice. And, finally, reprobates shall die in Hell for as long as God shall live. And unless God ceases to be what He is, they shall not cease to be what they are” (Hell and its Torments, Published by Tan Books, Rockford, Illinois, 1990, p. 44).

St. Paul the Apostle: “Now the works of the flesh are manifest: which are fornication [premarital sex], uncleanness, immodesty [bikini’s; short skirts/pants etc.], luxury, Idolatry, witchcrafts [Satanists; Wizards; Witches, etc.], enmities, contentions, emulations, wraths, quarrels, dissensions, sects [false churches/religions], Envy, murders [abortionists], drunkenness, revellings, and such like. Of the which I foretell you, as I have foretold to you, that they who do such things shall not obtain the kingdom of God” (Galatians 5:19-21).

Pope Stephen V (885-891 A.D.):

“That person is a murderer who causes to perish by abortion what has been conceived.” (Gratian, Concordantia Discordantium Canonum, c. 20, C. 2, q. 2.).

The Wicked Crime of Abortion! They Never Call It Sin Anymore! God forgive us!

Salt Poisoning Abortion (murder) of a baby girl at 19 weeks old.

“Anyone that believes, practices, teaches or condones abortion is a coward and the truth is not in him! A baby is not a choice but a life, of which, God alone can take as He wills. The doctor that performs abortion is a murderer and so are they that assist or partake of abortion in any manner whatsoever. No one has the right to take an innocent life. All the Saints and All true reason dictates that abortion is murder, never permissible and is wicked and prevents children from receiving baptism and becoming true members of the Church that Christ founded, the Catholic Church. Murder speaks louder than words. Is this murder or a medical procedure? God will condemn severely and justly those that kill these poor innocent children. The fires of hell await those that do not sincerely repent of these grotesque crimes and beg, beg, the mercy of God. The Devil and his demons await such souls. God will not be mocked!” (WJD).

Pope Eugene IV (1431-1447 A.D.) invoking the Holy Ghost defines Ex-Cathedra:

“The Most Holy Roman Church firmly believes, professes and preaches, that none of those existing outside the Catholic Church, not only pagans, but also Jews and heretics and schismatics, can have a share in life eternal; but that they will go into the eternal fire, ‘which was prepared for the devil and his angels, (Matt. 25:41)’ unless before death they are joined with Her; and that so important is the unity of this ecclesiastical body that only those remaining within this unity can profit from the sacraments of the Church unto salvation, and that they alone can receive an eternal recompense for their fasts, their almsgiving, their other works of Christian piety, and duties of a Christian soldier. No one, let his almsgiving be as great as it may, no one, even if he pour out his blood for the name of Christ, can be saved, unless he abide within the bosom and unity of the Catholic Church” (The Papal Bull Cantate Domino, 1441 A.D. See also: Enchiridion symbolorum, definitionum et declarationum de rebus fidei et morum. 30th ed., B. Herder Book Co., London, 1954, Article: 714, p. 230).

Holy Bible: “Wizards [witches] thou shalt not suffer to live” (Exodus 22:18).

St. Peter Mavimenus: “Every man who does not embrace the Catholic Christian faith is damned as Mohammed, your false prophet was” (Martyrologium Romanum [Feb. 21] p. 42, edition 1948; See also: The Roman Martyrology [Feb. 21] p. 37, edited by: Canon J.B. O’Connell, The Newman Press, Westminster, Maryland, 1962).

The Holy Bible:

“Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God [Jesus Christ; or His Holy ones names: the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints] in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless [without punishment] that shall take the name of the Lord his God in vain” (Exodus 20:7).

Lastly, who founded your religion?

- 1. Greek Schismatic Church founded by Photius (man) in the 9th century A.D. and in 1054 A.D. by Michael C(K)erularius (man).
- 2. Lutheran Church founded by Martin Luther (man) in 1517 A.D. who married an ex-nun Katherine von Bora (1499-1552).
- 3. Anglican Church founded by Henry VIII (man) in 1532 A.D.
- 4. Baptist Church founded by John Smith (man) in 1606 A.D.
- 5. Mormon Church founded by Joseph Smith (man) in 1829 A.D. who belonged to the Order of the Freemasons: occultists.
- 6. If you belong to the Vatican II (1962-1965) Sect then you know your religion was founded by Anti-Popes John XXIII & Paul VI who taught heresy and were invalidly elected as Supreme Pontiff.
- 7. The Catholic Church founded by Jesus Christ (God and Man) in the year 33 A.D. upon St. Peter (Matt. 16:18) the rock (John 1:42) outside of which there is No Salvation (Matt. 18:17), and the last true Pontiff (Pope) to reign His Holiness Pope Pius XII (1958 A.D.)

Have confidence in Christ’s mercy!

“Let all poor sinners, Jews, and heretics come to My Divine Mercy and rest assures that if they come with a contrite heart and a resolve not to sin no more I will pardon all their sins. There is no sin which I cannot pardon. And I thirst for thy heart to be one with Me if only you will take My hand and trust in My Divine Mercy which I give to all those that believe and trust in Me and My Most Holy Catholic Church. Do not be afraid to come to Me, and seek refuge and comfort, no matter how great the sin. I died for thee.”

For more information, please email:

TryCatholic@aol.com